

The Tracy Diamonds
Mary Jane Holmes

In Part 1 of The Tracy Diamonds, wealthy, notorious flirt, Helen Tracy sets her sights on the one man who has shown no interest in her. Inviting her poor cousin Alice to accompany her and her mother, she decides to spend the summer in Ridgefield where (said man) Craig Mason also happens to be spending his holidays. You will love the colorful proprietors of the Prospect House, Uncle Zach and Dotty. As Helen progresses in her scheme to win over Craig, the very handsome office clerk Mark is thrown into the mix and from there the tale becomes one of misguided love and regrets. Part 2 takes place many years later and is filled with very unexpected developments, surprising new characters and a wonderful and satisfying ending. - Summary by Celine Major
